Clark Griffith's band of Nationals won the rubber game of the series from "Wee" Miller Huggins' Yankees esterday at the Florida Avenue Sta-dum, with a grand finale before in-ading the Gothamite's balliwick, by

1-to-0 count. Walter Johnson and Ernie Shore had a pitchers duel as both yielded the same number of hits, but the Smoke-ball King received the breaks, while his opponent was touched up for three doubles and a triple; the Kansas Cyclone was holding the wrecking crew of the invaders safe all the way. Shore was in danger several times, but his support pulled him out of the tight for the Nationals opened with a hit, and his team mates failed to advance Judge doubled in the third, after him. Judge doubled in the third, after two were down, but neither Leonard nor Milan could score him with a hit. Sam Rice tripled in the fourth, but Shore tightened and there was no scoring. The Yanks were only dan-gerous in the sixth and final. Home Run Baker opened with a single to left in the sixth and Duffy Lewis fol-Jeft in the sixth and Duffy Lewis fol-lowed with a blow to center which put the Trapp farmer on second, where Charrity picked him off with a quick peg to Grover. In their final turn at the bat the Gothamites opened with a single by Lewis, his second for the game, and, after two were down. Charrity picked him off the bag with a quick peg to Judge. No Yankee saw the hot corner.

Roger Peckinpaugh, the great shortstop of the Yankees, got two more hits in the contest, which brings his consecutive hitting up to twenty-two eld on the Dumbarton Club courts yeshits in twenty-two games. Roger also terday, when Everett Burke and contributed two great plays when in Frank Taylor defeated Beale and the fourth he raced over back of Johnston to win the juntor doubles second and picked up Shank's grasscutter and peggtd him out at Pipp's
